Individuals at their precinct caucuses can submit resolutions. When a majority of the caucus adopts a resolution, it advances to the Organizing Unit convention for consideration to send to the State Platform, Issues, and Legislative Affairs Committee. Resolutions having support from at least five Organizing Units from at least two Congressional Districts may be selected for consideration at the State Convention (for inclusion in DFL Ongoing Platform or Action Agenda).

The DFL Party opposes all attempts by the Minnesota Legislature to eliminate or reduce prevailing wage rates in the state of Minnesota.

You may add a brief explanation or your two or three strongest supportive points here.

- The Minnesota Prevailing wage law (state Davis-Bacon Act) has been in Minnesota Statute since 1973 and pays prevailing wage rates to construction workers when state money is involved.
- Construction workers who are paid prevailing wages help strengthen the communities – businesses and schools – in which they live.
